

All For Naught - Capo 2 in E from DADGAD

Badd4 Aadd4
August evenings wet with mist,
From thickets deep, a humid kiss
E somehow I knew it was you Badd4 Aadd4
months go by without a face- the stalker, I-
your paths retrace I wanted it to be you.

Badd4 A
 Prove to me the feeling of the spirit of the child-man
 With your laughter
 Badd4 A
 Teach me to believe it when I dance that ancient
 dance beneath your shadow
 E A E
 Was it all for the mountain, or was it all for the A E Badd4 E
 dreaming, or was it all for naught?

Badd4
Wet sleeping bag, from drenching rain
Aadd4 E
I lay awake and feel the pain knowing I can't touch you
Badd4
And heatless cars on drunken roads
Aadd4
in half-slept dreams, your presence holds-
E
I have no intentions of you

Badd4
In goldenrod and clover fields
Aadd4 E
I've dreamt of you to see if I was worthy
In steamy creeks I've sensed to you there all goosed-skinned and contented with your wading
E Aadd4 E Aadd4
Was it all for the meadow, or was it all for the water, E Badd4 E
or is it all for naught?

Badd4
Through faded dreams - the skies erase Aadd4 E
the seasons passing feels your grace and I'm listening for you
Badd4
In hayless fields, or full wood piles,
A
through frost-dead sunflowers haunted aisles
E
I hear you whisper to me

Badd4
If I could be with you tonight,
Aadd4 E
if I could sniff the candlelight, I'd be there Badd4 Aadd4
If I could win your love with deeds,
if I could have the strength I need to stay there.
E Aadd4 E Aadd4
Was it all for the memory, was it all for the dreaming,
or is it all for naught?
Was it all for the season, or was it all the heart's treason,
or is it all for naught?
