

Three Fishers - Charles Kingsley

Am C G
Three fishers went sailing out into the west
Am Em G
Out into the west as the sun went down
F Am G
Each thought on the woman that loved him the best, and
Am F G
The children stood watching them out on the town

C F G
For men must work and women must weep
Am C G
For there's little to earn and many to keep, and
F Gadd4 G
The harbour bar be moanin'
Am F G C G
The harbour bar be moanin'

Am C G
Three wives sat up in the lighthouse tower
Am Em G
They trimmed the lamps as the sun went down, and
F Am G
They looked at the squall & they looked at the shower &
Am F G
The night-wrack came rollin' in, ragged and brown

C F G
For men must work and women must weep
Am C G
For the storms be sudden and the waters be deep, and
F Gadd4 G
The harbour bar be moanin' and
Am F G C G
The harbour bar be moanin'

C F G
Men must work and women must weep
Am C G
For the storms be sudden and the waters be deep, and
F Gadd4 G
The harbour bar be moanin' and
Am F G C G
The harbour bar be moanin'

Am C G
Three corpses lay out on the shining sand
Am Em G
In the morning gleam as the tide went down, and
F Am G
The women were weepin' and wringin' their hands
Am F G
For those who would never come back to the town

C F G
Men must work and the women must weep, for
Am C G
The sooner it's over, the sooner to sleep, and
F Gadd4 G
Goodbye to the bar and its moanin', and
Am F G C
Goodbye to the bar and its moanin'

C F G
The men must work and the women must weep, for
Am C G
The sooner it's over, the sooner to sleep, and
F Gadd4 G
Goodbye to the bar and its moanin', and
Am F G C
Goodbye to the bar and its moanin'
