

Three Fishers - Charles Kingsley

Bm D A
 Three fishers went sailing out into the west
 Bm F#m A
 Out into the west as the sun went down
 G Bm A
 Each thought on the woman that loved him the best, and
 Bm G A
 The children stood watching them out on the town

D G A
 For men must work and women must weep
 Bm D A
 For there's little to earn and many to keep, and
 G Asus4 A
 The harbour bar be moanin'
 Bm G A D A
 The harbour bar be moanin'

Bm D A
 Three wives sat up in the lighthouse tower
 Bm F#m A
 They trimmed the lamps as the sun went down, and
 G Bm A
 They looked at the squall & they looked at the shower &
 Bm G A
 The night-wrack came rollin' in, ragged and brown

D G A
 For men must work and women must weep
 Bm D A
 For the storms be sudden and the waters be deep, and
 G Asus4 A
 The harbour bar be moanin' and
 Bm G A D A
 The harbour bar be moanin'

D G A
 Men must work and women must weep
 Bm D A
 For the storms be sudden and the waters be deep, and
 G Asus4 A
 The harbour bar be moanin' and
 Bm G A D A
 The harbour bar be moanin'

Bm D A
 Three corpses lay out on the shining sand
 Bm F#m A
 In the morning gleam as the tide went down, and
 G Bm A
 The women were weepin' and wringin' their hands
 Bm G A
 For those who would never come back to the town

D G A
 Men must work and the women must weep, for
 Bm D A
 The sooner it's over, the sooner to sleep, and
 G Asus4 A
 Goodbye to the bar and its moanin', and
 Bm G A D
 Goodbye to the bar and its moanin'

D G A
 The men must work and the women must weep, for
 Bm D A
 The sooner it's over, the sooner to sleep, and
 G Asus4 A
 Goodbye to the bar and its moanin', and
 Bm G A D
 Goodbye to the bar and its moanin'
