

TORN SCREEN DOOR (Eric Capos 2 in D)

E B
Late summer day and my
A E
Love and I went walking
E B
Over hills and fields we walked,
A B E laughing and talking

E B
Came across an old farmhouse
A B A
Standing broken and bare
E B
It used to be someone's home
A B E
Now no one lives there.

E B
There's a red barn standing
A B A
Held together with nails and dust
E B
And a tired old Massey Harris
A B E
All wires and rust

E B
Weeds overgrown in a
A B A garden sown with care
E B
It used to be someone's home
A B E
Now no one lives there

B A B
And through the crack In the window pane
E A E
I hear the sound of the falling rain
B A B
Another farm being left run down
E A E
Another family moved into town
A B A
Had a life that they tried to save
E A E
But the banks took it all away
B A B
Hung a sign on a torn screen door
E A E
Nobody lives here no more

B A B
They worked their fingers To the bone
Nothing left They can call their own
B A B
Packed it in under leaden skies
E A E
With just the wheat Waving them goodbye
A B A
Had a life that they tried to save
E A E
But the banks took it all away
B A B
Hung a sign on a torn screen door
E A E
Nobody lives here no more
